European Communication Services (ECS) Launches Victory International Church TV to Africa & Europe

ECS European Communication Services (www.ecs-tv.com) today announced that it has launched Nigeria's Victory International Church on a Direct-To-Home (DTH) channel throughout Sub-Saharan Africa and parts of Europe. ECS is distributing the church's services direct from headquarters in Ibadan, Nigeria. Broadcast includes periodic conventions as well as its regular TV channel programming and is doing so with remote play out control from the UK.

With 17 branches around Africa and Europe, Victory International is a leading evangelical African church whose followers are located throughout Nigeria, Sub-Saharan Africa, Holland, the UK and the rest of Europe. Since the late 1980s, the church has been constantly expanding. Now with its own TV broadcasts, the church is sending its messages through creative programming to reach a greater audience. The channel is a platform offering original religious programming preaching the church's messages to all mankind.

"ECS' full solution for our partners at Victory International offers them a tailored answer for spreading its word to sub-Saharan Africa and Europe. For them, our team designed and created a mixture that enables them to bring their inspiration further into the world. Our expertise in providing technical and effective answers to advance our partners' goals is a prime example of how ECS works hand in hand to supply our clients with exciting propositions," commented ECS' CEO, Eran Avni.

ECS works closely together with its partners to procure the best methods for Faith-based channels and networks to enlarge their viewing audience to every corner of the world. The company's top solutions allow these broadcasters to distribute their messages to the right target audiences.
